2) Security:

The loan would be secured by Mortgage of the property for which the loan is availed. Aptus at times may also seek additional collateral of any other property.

3) Insurance of the Borrowers:

a) Credit Shield Insurance

Borrowers have the option to take Credit Shield Insurance for the term. Borrowers are given the option to pay the insurance premium from their own sources or approach the Company to fund the premium amount. If the borrower opts for insurance funding, the insurance premium will be added to the loan amount payable by the borrower and will be recovered through equated monthly instalments. Such insurance coverage being voluntarily taken by the borrower will be from the insurance company as chosen by the borrower for a term equal to the tenure of the Loan.

The purchase of Credit Shield Insurance is purely voluntary and is not linked to availment of any other facility from the Company.

Aptus holds no warranty and does not make any representation about the insurance product. Please note that the role of Aptus under the insurance policy would be that of a facilitator and the decision to cover and settle any future claim under the policy would solely rest with the insurance company.

4) Condition for disbursement of loan:

Loan sanctions would be disbursed subject to technical and legal scrutiny of the property and related documents. The proposed property for which the loan is required would be evaluated for its value and marketability and approvals etc. by in house technical team. Plan approvals from competent authority are mandatory for housing loans. Similarly, the property documents would be scrutinized for their legal validity for clear and marketable title.

When the loan applied is for construction of a property, the borrower needs to have completed the construction to the extent of his margin contribution before the disbursement. Further, the loan will be disbursed in stages, based on the completion of construction.

5) Repayment of the Loan and Interest:

The Loan availed would be repaid in an Equated Monthly Installments (EMI) over the agreed tenor. If the borrower has opted for variable interest rate, the EMI would vary based on change in the interest rates of Aptus.

The monthly repayments are payable on agreed due date every month. Aptus would make best efforts to remind the borrowers regarding the monthly installments falling due. However, the borrowers are advised to keep note of the due date and honor the repayments.

6) Part Payments and Pre closures

The borrower at any time during the tenor of the loan, choose to make partial payments towards the outstanding principal or fully prepay the loan. Depending on the product, interest type and the end use, the part payments and pre closures would attract charges as mentioned below.
